Complaints Policy – Third Party

1 Introduction

- 1.1 We are committed to providing high quality legal services to our clients. The nature of the services we provide mean we regularly have to engage with third parties particularly individuals who we are pursuing for outstanding debts. The vast majority of these third parties will be our client's customers. We endeavour to ensure that whenever we engage with third parties, we meet the highest of professional standards. Further we are committed to treating all third parties and fairly. However, we recognise that on occasion a third party may be dissatisfied with the way we have dealt with them or handled their matter. As part of our commitment to maintain standards this policy is aimed at ensuring that third parties have a transparent, clear and fair mechanism to raise any issues they have and any avenue of redress.
- 1.2 We have a separate dedicated complaints process for any clients who may wish to complain.

2 Third Party Complaints Officer

- 2.1 We have nominated a specific senior manager to deal with any complaints from a third party. In the event the Complaints Officer is directly involved in the matter subject of the complaint an alternative member of the Senior Management Team will be appointed to deal with the complaint.

4 How We Will Deal with Your Complaint?

4.1 Once your complaint is received it will be passed to the Complaints Officer to investigate. The following initial steps will be taken:

4.1.1 Your complaint will be recorded on a central log of complaints – This ensures that a record is kept of your complaint. The log also allows us to track any trends and ensure we are able to learn from any mistakes that have been made.

4.1.2 We will write to you, via post or email, within 5 working days acknowledging your complaint and enclosing a copy of this policy. The acknowledgment will also provide an estimate of the time it will take us to fully investigate your complaint.

4.1.3 Generally we will aim to conclude our investigation as quickly as possible; in any event within 8 weeks. We will let you know if there is a reason which means it might take longer than this to conclude the investigation.

- 4.1.4 We will notify our client that you have raised a complaint and of the fact that we are investigating the same. Depending on the nature of the complaint it may be necessary for us to obtain information and or feedback from our client as part of the investigation.
- 4.1.5 Where a complaint is directed at our client's conduct, we will forward the complaint to them in order for their complaint process to be followed. If this is the case, where possible will hold activity until our client has investigated and responded to the complaint. Where instructed, we will provide you a copy of our client's complaint handling process.
- 4.1.6 If, on the rare occasions we are unable to hold activity, we will write to inform you the reason why.
- 4.1.7 The Complaints Officer will consider if there are any facts which suggest that the complaints process should be amended so that you can fully take part. For example you may have indicated that you have a particular difficulty with written communications and as such it might be appropriate to ensure any letters or emails we send to you are also explained to you orally over the telephone. If you have any specific issues which mean you require an amendment to our complaints process please let us know so we can consider if any changes are required.
- 4.1.8 The Complaints Officer will investigate your complaint this will usually involve:
- (a) Reviewing your complaint
  - (b) Reviewing any relevant case we have handled involving you. This will include reviewing any electronic or paper files we have so we can fully understand the history of the matter and what has occurred.
  - (c) Speaking with the person who dealt with your matter and where necessary that individuals direct line manager.
  - (d) As part of the process we may need to ask you for further information or documents. If so, we will ask you to provide the information within a specific period of time. If we do not receive the information within the specified time we will send you a reminder which will include a final date for the information or documents to be provided. If we do not receive the information or documents by the final date we will have to proceed to finalise the investigation without the benefit of the information or documentation. This may in turn impact our findings.

- (e) We may also, if appropriate, invite you to a meeting to discuss your complaint. You do not have to attend if you do not wish to or if you are unable to. We will be happy to discuss the matter with you on the telephone.

4.1.9 Once the Complaints Officer has concluded the investigation we will send to you, via post or email, an Investigation Report. The Investigation Report will:

- (a) Confirm the steps we have taken to investigate your complaint.
- (b) Confirm whether in our view your complaint is a complaint against the conduct of the firm or alternatively a complaint in respect of a decision or action taken which is outside the firm's control. For example it is possible that your complaint is that you are not happy that legal proceedings have been issued against you as in your view you do not owe the debt. The decision to issue proceedings may not be one that we have taken.
- (c) Where your complaint is against a decision or action taken outside this firm's control we will set out our client's legal response to the issues you have raised and will set out your options if you are not happy with our response.
- (d) If the complaint is a complaint against the conduct of this firm the Complaints Officer will give his/her view as to whether based on their investigation there is a reasonable basis for your complaint and whether we have acted incorrectly or made a mistake.
- (e) Where we accept that we have acted incorrectly or made a mistake the Complaints Officer will set out the steps we propose to take in order to put it right.
- (f) If we do not accept we have acted incorrectly or made a mistake the Complaints Officer will explain the basis for his or her decision.

5 Summary Resolution Complaints

- 5.1 Notwithstanding sections 3 and 4 above and where your dissatisfaction relates to our dealing with a consumer credit regulated matter, we would like to resolve your concern in a swift and timely manner without the need to escalate.
- 5.2 If we reach a resolution within 3 working days of the complaint being raised, this will still be recorded, and a Summary Resolution Letter will be sent to you, confirming that a dissatisfaction was raised and what we have done to resolve.
- 5.3 To do this we may need to contact you by telephone and keep you updated regarding the progress of our investigation.
- 5.4 We will only determine a dissatisfaction as 'resolved' where we have gained explicit confirmation from you that there is no longer a dissatisfaction.
- 5.5 This process is aimed to reach a resolution as quickly as possible for you. If -in the unlikely event- you remain dissatisfied following this process, you can highlight your complaint for further review by following section 6 and 7 below.
